M. S. Borkar, Under Secretary (Law).

Panaji, 22nd July, 1972.

The Departmental Inquiries (Enforcement of Attendance of Witnesses and Production of Documents) Act, 1972

to provide for the enforcement of attendance of witnesses and production of documents in certain departmental inquiries and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and extent. — (1) This Act may be called the Departmental Inquiries (Enforcement of Attendance of Witnesses and Production of Documents) Act, 1972.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

2. Departmental inquiries to which the Act shall apply. — The provisions of this Act shall apply to every departmental inquiry made in relation to —

(a) persons appointed to public services or posts in connection with the affairs of the Union;

(b) persons who, having been appointed to any public service or post in connection with the affairs of the Union, are in service or pay of,—

(i) any local authority in any Union territory,

(ii) any corporation established by or under a Central Act and owned or controlled by the Central Government,

(iii) any Government company within the meaning of section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956, in which not less than fifty one per cent of the paid-up share capital is held by the Central Government or any company which is a subsidiary of such Government company, 1 of 1956.

(iv) any society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, 21 of 1860, which is subject to the control of the Central Government.

3. Definitions. — For the purposes of this Act, —

(a) "departmental inquiry" means an inquiry held under and in accordance with —

(i) any law made by Parliament or any rule made thereunder, or

(ii) any rule made under the proviso to article 309, or continued under article 313, of the Constitution of India, into any allegation of lack of integrity against any person to whom this Act applies;

(b) "inquiring authority" means an officer or authority appointed by the Central Government or by any officer or authority subordinate to that Government to hold a departmental inquiry and includes any officer or authority who is empowered by or under any law or rule for the time being in force to hold such inquiry;

(c) "lack of integrity" includes bribery or corruption.

4. Power of Central Government to authorise the exercise of powers specified in section 5. — (1) Where the Central Government is of opinion that for the purposes of any departmental inquiry it is necessary to summon as witnesses, or call for any document from, any class or category of persons it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise the inquiring authority to exercise the power specified in section 5 in relation to any person within such class or category and thereupon the inquiring authority may exercise such power at any stage of the departmental inquiry.

(2) The power conferred on the Central Government by sub-section (1) may also be exercised by such authority, not being an authority inferior to the appointing authority in relation to the person against whom the departmental inquiry is being held, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf.

5. Power of authorised inquiring authority to enforce attendance of witnesses and production of documents. — (1)

Every inquiring authority authorised under section 4 (hereafter referred to as the "authorised inquiring authority") shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

5 of 1908.

(a) the summoning and enforcing the attendance of any witness and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document or other material which is producible as evidence;

(c) the requisitioning of any public record from any court or office.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the authorised inquiring authority shall not compel the Reserve Bank of India, the State Bank of India, any subsidiary bank as defined in clause (k) of section 2 of the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959, or any corresponding new bank constituted under section 3 of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970,—

33 of 1959.

5 of 1970.

(a) to produce any books of account or other documents which the Reserve Bank of India, the State Bank of India, the subsidiary bank or the corresponding new bank claims to be of a confidential nature, or

(b) to make any such books or documents a part of the record of the proceedings of the departmental inquiry, or

(c) to give inspection of any such books or documents, if produced, to any party before it or to any other person.

(3) Every process issued by an authorised inquiring authority for the attendance of any witness or for the production of any document shall be served and executed through the District Judge within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the witness or other person, on whom the process is to be served or executed, voluntarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, and, for the purpose of taking any action for the disobedience of any such process, every such process shall be deemed to be a process issued by the District Judge.

(4) Every authorised inquiring authority making any departmental inquiry under this Act shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

5 of 1898.

6. Territorial limits in which powers specified in section 5 may be exercised.—For the purpose of exercising the powers specified in section 5, the territorial jurisdiction of every authorised inquiring authority shall extend to the limits of the territory to which this Act extends.

7. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that the modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

AN

to provide for the registration of architects and for matters connected therewith.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Architects Act, 1972.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “architect” means a person whose name is for the time being entered in the register;

(b) “Council” means the Council of Architecture constituted under section 3;

(c) “Indian Institute of Architects” means the Indian Institute of Architects registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860; 21 of 1860.

(d) “recognised qualification” means any qualification in architecture for the time being included in the Schedule or notified under section 15;

(e) “register” means the register of architects maintained under section 23;

(f) “regulation” means a regulation made under this Act by the Council;

(g) “rule” means a rule made under this Act by the Central Government.

CHAPTER II

Council of Architecture

3. Constitution of Council of Architecture.—(1) The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute, with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, a Council to be known as the Council of Architecture, which shall be a body corporate, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract, and may by that name sue or be sued.

(2) The Head Office of the Council shall be at Delhi or at such other place as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

(3) The Council shall consist of the following members, namely:—

(a) five architects possessing recognised qualifications elected by the Indian Institute of Architects from among its members;

(b) two persons nominated by the All India Council for Technical Education established by the Resolution of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Education No. F.16-10/44-E.III, dated the 30th November, 1945;

(c) five persons elected from among themselves by heads of architectural institutions in India imparting full-time instruction for recognised qualifications;

(d) the Chief Architects in the Ministries of the Central Government to which the Government business relating to defence and railways has been allotted and the head of the Architectural Organisation in the Central Public Works Department, ex officio;

(e) one person nominated by the Central Government;

(f) an architect from each State nominated by the Government of that State;

(g) two persons nominated by the Institution of Engineers (India) from among its members; and

(h) one person nominated by the Institution of Surveyors of India from among its members.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section,—

(a) “Institution of Engineers (India)” means the Institution of Engineers (India) first registered in 1920 under the Indian Companies Act, 1913 7 of 1913. and subsequently incorporated by a Royal Charter in 1935.

(b) “Institution of Surveyors of India” means the Institution of Surveyors registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. 21 of 1860.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a) of sub-section (3), the Central Government may, pending the preparation of the register, nominate to the first Council, in consultation with the Indian Institute of Architects, persons referred to in the said clause (a) who are qualified for registration under section 25, and the persons so nominated shall hold office for such period as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (f) of sub-section (3), the Central Government may, pending the preparation of the register, nominate to the first Council, in consultation with the State Governments concerned, persons referred to in the said clause (f), who are qualified for registration under section 25, and the persons so nominated shall hold office for such period as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

4. President and Vice-President of Council.—(1) The President and the Vice-President of the Council shall be elected by the members of the Council from among themselves:

Provided that on the first constitution of the Council and until the President is elected, a member of the Council nominated by the Central Government in this behalf shall discharge the functions of the President.

(2) An elected President or Vice-President of the Council shall hold office for a term of three years or till he ceases to be a member of the Council, whichever is earlier, but subject to his being a member of the Council, he shall be eligible for re-election:

Provided that —

(a) the President or the Vice-President may, by writing under his hand addressed to the Vice-President or the President, as the case may be, resign his office;

(b) the President or the Vice-President shall, notwithstanding the expiry of his terms of three years, continue to hold office until his successor enters upon office.

(3) The President and the Vice-President of the Council shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be prescribed by regulations.

5. Mode of elections. — (1) Elections under this Chapter shall be conducted in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) Where any dispute arises regarding any such election, the matter shall be referred by the Council to a Tribunal appointed by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette in this behalf, and the decision of the Tribunal shall be final:

Provided that no such reference shall be made except on an application made to the Council by an aggrieved party within thirty days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election.

(3) The expenses of the Tribunal shall be borne by the Council.

6. Terms of office and casual vacancies. — (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, an elected or nominated member shall hold office for a term of three years from the date of his election or nomination or until his successor has been duly elected or nominated, whichever is later.

(2) An elected or nominated member may, at any time, resign his membership by writing under his hand addressed to the President, or in his absence to the Vice-President, and the seat of such member shall thereupon become vacant.

(3) A member shall be deemed to have vacated his seat —

(i) if he is absent without excuse, sufficient in the opinion of the Council, from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the Council; or

(ii) if he ceases to be a member of the body referred to in clause (a), clause (g) or clause (h) of sub-section (3) of section 3 by which he was elected or nominated, as the case may be; or

(iii) in the case where he has been elected under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 3, if he ceases to hold his appointment as the head of an institution referred to in the said clause.

(4) A casual vacancy in the Council shall be filled by fresh election or nomination, as the case may be, and the person so elected or nominated to fill the vacancy shall hold office only for the remainder of the term for which the member whose place he takes was elected or nominated.

(5) Members of the Council shall be eligible for re-election or renomination, but not exceeding three consecutive terms.

7. Validity of act or proceeding of Council, Executive Committee or other committees not to be invalidated by reason of vacancy, etc. — No act or proceeding of the Council or the Executive Committee or any other committee shall be invalid merely by reason of —

(a) any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Council, the Executive Committee or any other committee, or

(b) any defect in the election or nomination of a person acting as a member thereof, or

(c) any irregularity in procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

8. Disabilities. — A person shall not be eligible for election or nomination as a member of the Council, if he —

(a) is an undischarged insolvent, or

(b) has been convicted by a court in India for any offence and sentenced to imprisonment for not less than two years, and shall continue to be ineligible for a further period of five years since his release.

9. Meetings of Council. — (1) The Council shall meet at least once in every six months at such time and place and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed by regulations.

(2) Unless otherwise prescribed by regulations, nine members of the Council shall form a quorum, and all the acts of the Council shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

(3) In the case of an equal division of votes, the President, or in his absence, the Vice-President or, in the absence of both, the member presiding over the meeting, shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.

10. Executive Committee and other committees. —

(1) The Council shall constitute from among its members an Executive Committee, and may also constitute other committees for such general or special purposes as the Council deems necessary to carry out its functions under this Act.

(2) The Executive Committee shall consist of the President and the Vice-President of the Council who shall be members ex-officio and five other members who shall be elected by the Council from among its members.

(3) The President and the Vice-President of the Council shall be the Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively of the Executive Committee.

(4) A member of the Executive Committee shall hold office as such until the expiry of his term as a member of the Council but subject to his being a member of the Council, he shall be eligible for re-election.

(5) In addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed on it by this Act, the Executive Committee shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as may be prescribed by regulations.

11. Fees and allowances to President, Vice-President and members. — The President, the Vice-President and other members of the Council shall be entitled to such fees and allowances as the Council may, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, fix in this behalf.

12. Officers and other employees. — (1) The Council shall —

(a) appoint a Registrar who shall act as its Secretary and who may also act, if so decided by the Council, as its treasurer;

(b) appoint such other officers and employees as the Council deems necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act;

(c) with the previous sanction of the Central Government, fix the pay and allowances and other conditions of service of officers and other employees of the Council.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a) of sub-section (1), for the first three years from the first constitution of the Council, the Registrar of the Council shall be a person appointed by the Central Government, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Central Government.

(3) All the persons appointed under this section shall be the employees of the Council.

13. Finances of Council. — (1) There shall be established a Fund under the management and control of the Council into which shall be paid all moneys received by the Council and out of which shall be met all expenses and liabilities properly incurred by the Council.

(2) The Council may invest any money for the time being standing to the credit of the Fund in any Government security or in any other security approved by the Central Government.

(3) The Council shall keep proper accounts of the Fund distinguishing capital from revenue.

(4) The annual accounts of the Council shall be subject to audit by an auditor to be appointed annually by the Council.

(5) As soon as may be practicable at the end of each year, but not later than the thirtieth day of September of the year next following, the Council shall cause to be published in the Official Gazette a copy of the audited accounts and the report of the Council for that year and copies of the said accounts and report shall be forwarded to the Central Government.

(6) The Fund shall consist of —

(a) all moneys received from the Central Government by way of grant, gift or deposit;

(b) any sums received under this Act whether by way of fee or otherwise.

(7) All moneys standing at the credit of the Council which cannot immediately be applied shall be deposited in the State Bank of India or in any other bank specified in column 2 of the First Schedule to the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970.

14. Recognition of qualifications granted by authorities in India. — (1) The qualifications included in the Schedule or notified under section 15 shall be recognised qualifications for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any authority in India which grants an architectural qualification not included in the Schedule may apply to the Central Government to have such qualification recognised, and the Central Government, after consultation with the Council, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule so as to include such qualification therein, and any such notification may also direct that an entry shall be made in the Schedule against such architectural qualification declaring that it shall be a recognised qualification only when granted after a specified date:

Provided that until the first Council is constituted, the Central Government shall, before issuing any notification as aforesaid, consult an expert committee consisting of three members to be appointed by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

15. Recognition of architectural qualifications granted by authorities in foreign countries. — (1) The Central Government may, after consultation with the Council, direct, by notification in the Official Gazette, that an architectural qualification granted by any university or other institution in any country outside India in respect of which a scheme of reciprocity for the recognition of architectural qualification is not in force, shall be a recognised qualification for the purposes of this Act or, shall be so only when granted after a specified date or before a specified date:

Provided that until the first Council is constituted the Central Government shall, before issuing any notification as aforesaid, consult the expert committee set up under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 14.

(2) The Council may enter into negotiations with the authority in any State or country outside India, which by the law of such State or country is entrusted with the maintenance of a register of architects, for settling of a scheme of reciprocity for the recognition of architectural qualifications, and in pursuance of any such scheme, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that such architectural qualification as the Council has decided should be recognised, shall be deemed to be a recognised qualification for the purposes of this Act, and any such notification may also direct that such architectural qualification shall be so recognised only when granted after a specified date or before a specified date.

16. Power of Central Government to amend Schedule. — Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of section 14, the Central Government, after consultation with the Council, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule by directing that an entry be made therein in respect of any architectural qualification.

17. Effect of recognition. — Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, but subject to the provisions of this Act, any recognised qualification shall be a sufficient qualification for enrolment in the register.

18. Power to require information as to courses of study and examinations. — Every authority in India which grants a recognised qualification shall furnish such information as the Council may, from time to time, require as to the courses of study and examinations to be undergone in order to obtain such qualification, as to the ages at which such courses of study and examinations are required to be undergone and such qualification is conferred and generally as to the requisites for obtaining such qualification.

19. Inspection of examinations. — (1) The Executive Committee shall, subject to regulations, if any, made by the Council, appoint such number of inspectors as it may deem requisite to inspect any college or institution where architectural education is given or to attend any examination held by any college or institution for the purpose of recommending to the Central Government recognition of architectural qualifications granted by that college or institution.

(2) The inspectors shall not interfere with the conduct of any training or examination, but shall report to the Executive Committee on the adequacy of the standards of architectural education including staff, equipment, accommodation, training and such other facilities as may be prescribed by regulations for giving such education or on the sufficiency of every examination which they attend.

(3) The Executive Committee shall forward a copy of such report to the college or institution and shall also forward copies with remarks, if any, of the college or institution thereon, to the Central Government.

20. Withdrawal of recognition. — (1) When upon report by the Executive Committee it appears to the Council —

(a) that the courses of study and examination to be undergone in, or the proficiency required from the candidates at any examination held by, any college or institution, or

(b) that the staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities for staff and training provided in such college or institution, do not conform to the standards prescribed by regulations, the Council shall make a representation to that effect to the appropriate Government.

(2) After considering such representation the appropriate Government shall forward it along with such remarks as it may choose to make to the college or institution concerned, with an intimation of the period within which the college or institution, as the case may be, may submit its explanation to the appropriate Government.

(3) On receipt of the explanation or where no explanation is submitted within the period fixed, then on the expiry of that period, the State Government, in respect of the college or institution referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (5), shall make its recommendations to the Central Government.

(4) The Central Government —

(a) after making such further enquiry, if any, as it may think fit, in respect of the college or institution referred to in sub-section (3), or

(b) on receipt of the explanation from a college or institution referred to in clause (a) of sub-section

(5), or where no explanation is submitted within the period fixed, then on the expiry of that period, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that an entry shall be made in the Schedule against the architectural qualification awarded by such college or institution, as the case may be, declaring that it shall be a recognised qualification only when granted before a specified date and the Schedule shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "appropriate government" means —

(a) in relation to any college or institution established by an Act of Parliament or managed, controlled or financed by the Central Government, the Central Government, and

(b) in any other case, the State Government.

21. Minimum standard of architectural education. — The Council may prescribe the minimum standards of architectural education required for granting recognised qualifications by colleges or institutions in India.

22. Professional conduct. — (1) The Council may by regulations prescribe standards of professional conduct and etiquette and a code of ethics for architects.

(2) Regulations made by the Council under sub-section (1) may specify which violations thereof shall constitute infamous conduct in any professional respect, that is to say, professional misconduct, and such provision shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER III

Registration of Architects

23. Preparation and maintenance of register. — (1) The Central Government shall, as soon as may be, cause to be prepared in the manner hereinafter provided a register of architects for India.

(2) The Council shall upon its constitution assume the duty of maintaining the register in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) The register shall include the following particulars, namely: —

(a) the full name with date of birth, nationality and residential address of the architect;

(b) his qualification for registration, and the date on which he obtained that qualification and the authority which conferred it;

(c) the date of his first admission to the register;

(d) his professional address; and

(e) such further particulars as may be prescribed by rules.

24. First preparation of register. — (1) For the purposes of preparing the register of architects for the first time, the Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute a Registration Tribunal consisting of three persons who have, in the opinion of the Central Government, the knowledge of, or experience in, architecture; and the Registrar appointed under section 12 shall act as Secretary of the Tribunal.

(2) The Central Government shall, by the same or a like notification, appoint a date on or before which application for registration, which shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by rules, shall be made to the Registration Tribunal.

(3) The Registration Tribunal shall examine every application received on or before the appointed day and if it is satisfied that the applicant is qualified for registration under section 25, shall direct the entry of the name of the applicant in the register.

(4) The first register so prepared shall thereafter be published in such manner as the Central Government may direct and any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registration Tribunal expressed or implied in the register so published may, within thirty days from the date of such publication, appeal against such decision to an authority appointed by the Central Government in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette.

(5) The authority appointed under sub-section (4) shall, after giving the person affected an opportunity of being heard and after calling for relevant records, make such order as it may deem fit.

(6) The Registrar shall amend, where necessary, the register in accordance with the decisions of the authority appointed under sub-section (4).

(7) Every person whose name is entered in the register shall be issued a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed by rules.

(8) Upon the constitution of the Council, the register shall be given into its custody, and the Central Government may direct that the whole or any specified part of the application fees for registration in the first register shall be paid to the credit of the Council.

25. Qualification for entry in register. — A person shall be entitled on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules to have his name entered in the register, if he resides or carries on the profession of architect in India and —

(a) hold a recognised qualification, or

(b) does not hold such a qualification but, being a citizen of India, has been engaged in practice as an architect for a period of not less than five years prior to the date appointed under sub-section (2) of section 24, or

(c) possesses such other qualifications as may be prescribed by rules:

Provided that no person other than a citizen of India shall be entitled to registration by virtue of a qualification —

(a) recognised under sub-section (1) of section 15 unless by the law and practice of a country outside India to which such person belongs, citizens of India holding architectural qualification registrable in that country are permitted to enter and practise the profession of architect in such country, or

(b) unless the Central Government has, in pursuance of a scheme of reciprocity or otherwise, declared that qualification to be a recognised qualification under sub-section (2) of section 15.

26. Procedure for subsequent registration. — (1) After the date appointed for the receipt of applications for registration in the first register of architecs, all applications for registration shall be addressed to the Registrar of the Council and shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) If upon such application the Registrar is of opinion that the applicant is entitled to have his name entered in the register he shall enter thereon the name of the applicant:

Provided that no person, whose name has under the provisions of this Act been removed from the register, shall be entitled to have his name re-entered in the register except with the approval of the Council.

(3) Any person whose application for registration is rejected by the Registrar may, within three months of the date of such rejection, appeal to the Council.

(4) Upon entry in the register of a name under this section, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed by rules.

27. Renewal fees. — (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that for the retention of a name in the register after the 31st day of December of the year following the year in which the name is first entered in the register, there shall be paid annually to the Council such renewal fee as may be prescribed by rules and where such direction has been made, such renewal fee shall be due to be paid before the first day of April of the year to which it relates.

(2) Where the renewal fee is not paid before the due date, the Registrar shall remove the name of the defaulter from the register:

Provided that a name so removed may be restored to the register on such conditions as may be prescribed by rules.

(3) On payment of the renewal fee, the Registrar shall, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules, endorse the certificate of registration accordingly.

28. Entry of additional qualification. — An architect shall, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules, be entitled to have entered in the register any further recognised qualification which he may obtain.

29. Removal from register. — (1) The Council may, by order, remove from the register the name of any architect —

(a) from whom a request has been received to that effect, or

(b) who has died since the last publication of the register.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Council may order that the name of any architect shall be removed from the register where it is satisfied, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after such further inquiry, if any, as it may think fit to make, —

(a) that his name has been entered in the register by error or on account of misrepresentation or suppression of a material fact; or

(b) that he has been convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of the Council, involves moral turpitude; or

(c) that he is an undischarged insolvent; or

(d) that he has been adjudged by a competent court to be of unsound mind.

(3) An order under sub-section (2) may direct that any architect whose name is ordered to be removed from a register shall be ineligible for registration under this Act for such period as may be specified.

(4) An order under sub-section (2) shall not take effect until the expiry of three months from the date thereof.

30. Procedure in inquiries relating to misconduct.

(1) When on receipt of a complaint made to it, the Council is of opinion that any architect has been guilty of professional misconduct which, if proved, will render him unfit to practise as an architect, the Council may hold an inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) After holding the inquiry under sub-section (1) and after hearing the architect, the Council may, by order, reprimand the said architect or suspend him from practice as an architect or remove his name from the register or pass such other order as it thinks fit.

31. Surrender of certificates.—A person whose name has been removed from the register under sub-section (2) of section 27, sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 29 or sub-section (2) of section 30, or where such person is dead, his legal representative, as defined in clause (11) of section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall forthwith surrender his certificate of registration to the Registrar, and the name so removed shall be published in the Official Gazette.

32. Restoration to register.—The Council may, at any time, for reasons appearing to it to be sufficient and subject to the approval of the Central Government, order that upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules, the name of the person removed from the register shall be restored thereto.

33. Issue of duplicate certificates.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Registrar that a certificate of registration has been lost or destroyed, the Registrar may, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules, issue a duplicate certificate in the form prescribed by rules.

34. Printing of register.—As soon as may be after the 1st day of April in each year, the Registrar shall cause to be printed copies of the register as it stood on the said date and such copies shall be made available to persons applying therefor on payment of such fee as may be prescribed by rules and shall be evidence that on the said date the persons whose names are entered therein were architects.

35. Effect of registration.—(1) Any reference in any law for the time being in force to an architect shall be deemed to be a reference to an architect registered under this Act.

(2) After the expiry of two years from the date appointed under sub-section (2) of section 24, a person who is registered in the register shall get preference for appointment as an architect under the Central or State Government or in any other local body or institution which is supported or aided from the public or local funds or in any institution recognised by the Central or State Government.

CHAPTER IV

Miscellaneous

36. Penalty for falsely claiming to be registered. If any person whose name is not for the time being entered in the register falsely represents that it is so entered, or uses in connection with his name or title any words or letters reasonably calculated to suggest that his name is so entered, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

37. Prohibition against use of title.—(1) After the expiry of one year from the date appointed under sub-section (2) of section 24, no person other than a registered architect, or a firm of architects shall use the title and style of architect:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to—

(a) practice of the profession of an architect by a person designated as a "landscape architect" or "naval architect";

(b) a person who, carrying on the profession of an architect in any country outside India, undertakes the function as a consultant or designer in India for a specific project with the prior permission of the Central Government.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (a),—

(i) "landscape architect" means a person who deals with the design of open spaces relating to plants, trees and landscape;

(ii) "naval architect" means an architect who deals with design and construction of ships.

(2) If any person contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), he shall be punishable on first conviction with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and on any subsequent conviction with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or with both.

38. Failure to surrender certificate of registration.—If any person whose name has been removed from the register fails without sufficient cause forthwith to surrender his certificate of registration, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and, in the case of a continuing failure, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for each day after the first during which he has persisted in the failure.

39. Cognizance of offences.—(1) No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act, except upon complaint made by order of the Council or a person authorised in this behalf by the Council.

(2) No Magistrate other than a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Act.

40. Information to be furnished by Council and publication thereof.—(1) The Council shall furnish such reports, copies of its minutes, and other information to the Central Government as that Government may require.

(2) The Central Government may publish, in such manner as it may think fit, any report, copy or other information furnished to it under this section.

41. Protection of action taken in good faith. — No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government, the Council or any member of the Council, the Executive Committee or any other committee or officers and other employees of the Council for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

42. Members of Council and officers and employees to be public servants. — The members of the Council and officers and other employees of the Council shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. 45 of 1860.

43. Power to remove difficulties. — (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each House of Parliament and the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 44 shall apply in respect of such order as it applies in respect of a rule made under this Act.

44. Power of Central Government to make rules. — (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely: —

(a) the manner in which elections under Chapter II shall be conducted, the terms and conditions of service of the member of the Tribunal appointed under sub-section (2) of section 5 and the procedure to be followed by the Tribunal;

(b) the procedure to be followed by the expert committee constituted under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 14 in the transaction of its business and the powers and duties of the expert committee and the travelling and daily allowances payable to the members thereof;

(c) the particulars to be included in the register of architects under sub-section (3) of section 23;

(d) the form in which a certificate of registration is to be issued under sub-section (7) of section 24, sub-section (4) of section 26 and section 33;

(e) the fee to be paid under sections 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 32 and 33;

(f) the conditions on which name may be restored to the register under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 27;

(g) the manner of endorsement under sub-section (3) of section 27;

(h) the manner in which the Council shall hold an enquiry under section 30;

(i) the fee for supplying printed copies of the register under section 34;

(j) any other matter which is to be or may be provided by rules under this Act.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification to the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

45. Power of Council to make regulations. — (1) The Council may, with the approval of the Central Government, make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for —

(a) the management of the property of the Council;

(b) the powers and duties of the President and the Vice-President of the Council;

(c) the summoning and holding of meetings of the Council and the executive Committee or any other committee constituted under section 10, the times and places at which such meetings shall be held, the conduct of business thereat and the number of persons necessary to constitute a quorum;

(d) the functions of the Executive Committee or of any other committee constituted under section 10;

(e) the courses and periods of study and of practical training, if any, to be undertaken, the subjects of examinations and standards of proficiency therein to be obtained in any college or institution for grant of recognised qualifications;

(f) the appointment, powers and duties of inspector;

(g) the standards of staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities for architectural education;

(h) the conduct of professional examinations, qualifications of examiners and the conditions of admission to such examinations;

(i) the standards of professional conduct and etiquette and code of ethics to be observed by architects;

(j) any other matter which is to be or may be provided by regulations under this Act and in respect of which no rules have been made.

The Newspapers (Price Control) Act, 1972

AN

to provide for the control, in the interests of the general public, of the prices of newspapers with a view to ensuring that newspapers continue to function, in the prevailing conditions, as effective mass communication media and for securing their availability at fair prices.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and duration.—(1) This Act may be called the Newspapers (Price Control) Act, 1972.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall cease to have effect on the expiry of two years from the date of its commencement except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser of operation of this Act and section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, 10 of 1897, shall apply upon such cesser of operation of this Act as if it had then been repealed by a Central Act.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “basic price”, in relation to a newspaper, means the price of the newspaper on the 22nd day of October, 1971 [being the date on which the Stamp and Excise Duties (Amendment) Ordinance, 1971, was promulgated] or if the newspapers was not published on that day, its price on the day on which it is first published after that day; 16 of 1971.

(b) “basic price date”, in relation to a newspaper, means the date with reference to which its basic price is to be ascertained under clause (a);

(c) the expressions “newspaper”, “owner” and “publisher”, have the same meanings as in the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867. 25 of 1867.

3. Power to fix maximum prices of newspapers.—

(1) If the Central Government is of opinion that for the purpose of securing the availability of any newspapers or any class of newspapers at fair prices, it is necessary or expedient to do so, the Central Government may, from time to time, by order published in the Official Gazette, determine the maximum price which may be charged for such newspapers or newspapers of such class as may be specified in the order.

(2) In making under sub-section (1) any order determining the maximum price which may be charged for any newspaper referred to in that sub-section, the Central Government shall have regard to—

(a) the basic price of the newspaper;

(b) the excise duties and other taxes, if any, payable in respect of the newspaper;

(c) any special circumstances arising on or after the basic price date of the newspaper and having a bearing on the cost of the production of newspapers; and

(d) all other relevant circumstances;

Provided that the maximum price determined in respect of a newspaper shall in no case be less than its basic price.

(3) No order shall be made under this section in respect of any newspaper which is being sold at a price not exceeding its basic price.

(4) An order made under sub-section (1) may provide for different maximum prices in respect of different newspapers or different classes of newspapers or different newspapers in each such class and may provide for such incidental and supplemental matters (including the printing in a newspaper to which the order relates of the price thereof in a conspicuous manner) as the Central Government may deem fit.

4. Review and revision of orders.—(1) The owner or publisher of a newspaper to which an order under sub-section (1) of section 3 relates may,—

(a) if he is aggrieved by such order, make within thirty days of the date of publication of the order in the Official Gazette, an application to the Central Government for a review of the order setting out in such application the grounds on which he considers such review to be necessary;

(b) whenever fresh circumstances having a bearing on the cost of production of the newspaper arise after the date of making of the order, make an application for a revision of the order within thirty days after the date on which such circumstances have arisen, and the Central Government may pass such order on the said application for review or revision as it thinks fit:

Provided that the Central Government may for sufficient cause allow any such application to be made after the expiry of the period of thirty days aforesaid.

(2) Save as otherwise provided by an order made under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1), the order of the Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 3 shall be final.

5. Power to call for information, return, etc. —

(1) The Central Government or any officer authorised by the Central Government in this behalf may, by order in writing, require the owner or publisher of any newspaper to furnish, within such time as may be specified in the order any information, return or report which the Central Government or such officer may consider necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act and such owner or publisher shall be bound to comply with such order.

(2) If any owner or publisher contravenes any order under sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

6. Prohibition of sale of newspapers in contravention of the order under section 3. — No newspaper shall be sold in the territories to which this extends in contravention of an order made under section 3.

7. Penalty. — Whoever sells or causes to be sold a newspaper in contravention of an order made under section 3 shall, on first conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and, on any second or subsequent conviction, with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

8. Offences by companies. — (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this section, —

(a) "company" means a body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

9. Previous sanction of Central Government for prosecution. — No prosecution shall be instituted against any person in respect of any offence punishable under section 5 or section 7 without the previous sanction of the Central Government or such officer or authority as may be authorised by that Government by order in writing in that behalf.

The Drugs and Cosmetics (Amendment) Act, 1972

AN

ACT

further to amend the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows: —

2. Amendment of section 1. — In the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in section 1, —

(i) in sub-section (2), the words "except the State of Jammu and Kashmir" shall be omitted;

(ii) to sub-section (3), the following proviso shall be added, namely: —

"Provided that in relation to the State of Jammu and Kashmir, Chapter III shall take effect only from such date after the commencement of the Drugs and Cosmetics (Amendment) Act, 1972, as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf."

3. Amendment of section 3. — In section 3 of the principal Act, clause (d) shall be omitted.

4. Insertion of new section 3A. — After section 3 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely: —

"3A. Construction of references to any law not in force or any functionary not in existence in the State of Jammu and Kashmir. — Any reference in this Act to any law which is not in force, or any functionary not in existence, in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law in force, or to the corresponding functionary in existence, in that State."

5. Repeal and saving. — (1) On and from the date on which any of the provisions of the principal Act take effect in the State of Jammu and Kashmir, the corresponding provisions, if any, contained in the Jammu and Kashmir Drugs Act, 2000, shall stand repealed.

(2) The repeal of any provisions contained in the Jammu and Kashmir Drugs Act, 2000, under sub-section (1), shall not affect —

Jammu and Kashmir
Act 20 of 2000 (1940
A. D.).

The Maternity Benefit Amendment Act, 1972

AN ACT

further to amend the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act, 1972.

2. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in sub-section (2), for the words "Nothing contained in this Act", the words, figure and letter "Save as otherwise provided in section 5A, nothing contained in this Act" shall be substituted. 53 of 1961.

3. Insertion of new section 5A.—After section 5 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted namely:—

"5A. Continuance of payment of maternity benefit in certain cases.—Every woman entitled to the payment of maternity benefit under this Act shall, notwithstanding the application of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, to the factory or other establishment in which she is employed, continue to be so entitled until she becomes qualified to claim maternity benefit under section 50 of that Act." 34 of 1948.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and (2) of section 60 of the Maharashtra Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Act, 1963, as applicable to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu after due publication hereby makes the following amendment to the Goa, Daman and Diu Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Rules, 1969.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These Rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) (1st Amendment) Rules, 1972.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Rule 35.—For the existing Rule 35 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Rules, 1969 (hereinafter referred to as "principal Rules") the following new Rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"35. Division of Market area into constituencies:—

(1) For the purposes of electing ten agriculturists and three members to be elected by traders and commission agents as provided by clause (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 13 every market area shall consist of

(a) Cooperative Societies' constituency:

(b) Village Panchayats' constituency:

(c) Traders' constituency:

(2) Each such constituency shall consist of the whole of the market area."

3. Amendment of Rule 36.—(1) For the existing sub-rule (1) of Rule 36 of the principal rules the following new rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) The Collector shall cause to be prepared lists of voters separately for each of the three constituencies. He shall call upon—

(a) The Registrar of Cooperative Societies to prepare and furnish to him a list of members of the Managing Committees of the Agricultural Credit Societies and Multipurpose Cooperative Societies;

(b) The Block Development Officer to prepare and furnish to him a list of the members of the Village Panchayats functioning in the Market Area, and

(c) The Market Committee to prepare and furnish to him the names of all the persons qualified to vote in the traders' constituency from the register maintained by the Committee under rule 6, within such time as may be specified by him.

Provided that, where a person qualified to vote in a Traders' Constituency is a firm or body corporate (including a co-operative society), such firm or body shall nominate a person (being a person who is either a partner of the firm or a member of the managing committee in the case of a cooperative society or a person duly authorised by any other body corporate) to vote on its behalf and intimate the name of that person to the Collector within such time as he may fix in that behalf for being included in the list of voters as representing that firm or body:

Provided further that, if such firm or body is holding more than one licence, nevertheless, it shall not nominate more than one person as aforesaid."

(2) In proviso to sub-rule (2) of Rule 36, the words "in the case of the list of voters for the traders' constituency" shall be omitted.

(3) For the existing sub-rule (3) of Rule 36 the following new sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"(3) Every list of voters shall show in alphabetical order the full name, age, residence, serial number of the voter, the nature of his qualification and the name of the society or as the case may be, of the village Panchayat".

(4) Sub-rule (4) and (5) of Rule 36 shall be deleted.

(5) In sub-rule (8) of Rule 36 the words "and the area in the list for which he is entered" shall be omitted.

4. Amendment of Rule 38.—For the existing Rule 38 of the Principal Rules the following new Rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"38. Persons qualified to be elected.—(1) Every person who is an agriculturist, and who is residing in the market area and is not less than twenty-one years of age on such date as the Collector may for the purposes of any election or bye-election specify in this behalf shall, unless disqualified under these rules, be qualified to be elected.

(2) Every person whose name is in the list of voters of the traders' constituency shall, unless disqualified under these rules, be qualified to be elected; and every person whose name is not in such list shall not be qualified to be elected from that constituency.

Explanation:—(1) A person shall be deemed to reside ordinarily within the market area if he—

(a) has actually resided therein for an aggregate period of not less than 180 days during the calendar year preceding that in which the list of voters for the time being under preparation for Cooperative Societies' or Village Panchayats constituency is provisionally published under sub-rule (6) of rule 36, or

(b) has maintained within the market area for an aggregate period of not less than 180 days during the calendar year preceding that in which the list of voters for the time being under preparation for such area is provisionally published under sub-rule (6) of rule 36, a dwelling for himself in charge of his dependents or servants and has visited such dwelling during the year first mentioned in connection with his business in the constituency.

(3) If any question arises whether any person is or is not an agriculturist residing in the market area for the purpose of this rule, matter shall be decided by the State Marketing Officer as provided by sub-section (2) of section 2".

5. Amendment of rule 39.—Sub-rule (4) of Rule 39 of the Principal Rules, shall be deleted.

6. Amendment of Rule 41.—In item (ii) of sub-rule (2) of Rule 41 of the principal Rules for the words "agriculturists' constituency" the words "the co-operative Societies constituency or the Village Panchayats' constituency, for agriculturists" shall be substituted.

7. Amendment of Rule 45.—(1) In sub-rule (3) of Rule 45 of the Principal Rules for the words "Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the names and the numbers of the list of voters of the candidate and his proposer as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the list of voters." The words "Returning Officer shall satisfy himself that the candidate is an agriculturist falling within the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 and the name and number in the list of voters of the proposer as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the list of voters" shall be substituted.

(2) In proviso to the said sub-rule (3) for the words "the said names or numbers" the words "the said name or number" shall be substituted.

(3) sub-rule (4) of Rule 45 shall be deleted.

8. Amendment of Rule 58.—For the existing sub-rule (2) of the Rule 58 of the Principal Rules the following new sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2) Every voter shall have as many votes as there are members to be elected on behalf of the constituency, but he shall not have more than one vote for one candidate".

9. Amendment of Rule 89.—In clause (c) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 89 of the Principal Rules for the words "representing an agriculturists' constituency" the words "of the managing committee of the agricultural credit society or of the multipurpose co-operative Society representing the co-operative societies constituency or has ceased to be a member of the Village Panchayat representing Village Panchayats' constituency" shall be substituted.

10. Amendment of Rule 97.—For the existing clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 97 the following new clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(b) two members elected from the co-operative Societies' constituency and one member elected from the Village Panchayats' constituency."

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.
